

Border Patrol Supervisors' Association Scholarship Application

The Border Patrol Supervisors' Association (BPSA) was created to help Supervisors feel confident in their performance as leaders of our organization. Our motto, "Patronus Nostros," means "we take care of our own," and it speaks of our dedication to each other and to those we supervise.

ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS

There will be a total of 10 scholarships awarded to eligible applicants. Each scholarship awarded will be for $2,000.

Who is eligible to apply?: 1) A child of a current member of the BPSA; 2) The spouse or a child of a former BPSA member who passed in the line of duty; 3) Children of Honorary members (retired Border Patrol Supervisors) whose active record is maintained by BPSA. Note: members or spouses of current or honorary members are not eligible for application.

Criteria considered: Transcripts, Multimedia Project, Answering the four key areas.

REQUIREMENTS

1. These scholarships apply for students currently attending colleges, universities, and vocational/trade schools. Must currently be at least an accelerated high school student (junior/senior) attending a college or has been accepted to attend a college/university/vocational/trade school the following semester.
2. Must be a current student to participate; must have applied and have been accepted to an institution. Exceptions apply (eligibility criteria #2 - the spouse or child does not need to be a current student but must have been accepted to a college/university/trade school).
3. Minimum grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 (based on a 4.0 system). (Include a copy of transcripts with the current GPA of the student's most recent semester).
4. Prompt: Create a multimedia project utilizing the platform of choice, not to exceed seven (7) minutes, (video, photos, music, narrated PowerPoint, Screencastify video, Loom, Google Docs., YouTube (restrict access to your audience), etc.) about what can the U.S. Border Patrol do to build stronger ties with the community. Be creative. In your presentation, respond to four key areas: 1) introduce yourself; 2) your professional goals; 3) how the scholarship money will benefit you; 4) how your law enforcement family member has influenced you. Optional for eligibility criteria #2: submit a complete resume and typed essay answering the prompt (12-inch font, Times New Roman, 1-inch margins).
5. Application package and multimedia links must be sent to BPSA via email to: bpsasecretary@gmail.com and cc:mail: lizette.solares@cbp.dhs.gov. Please ensure enough access is provided so that links can be opened and shared for grading purposes. Confirm receipt of application package by deadline.
6. The completed application package must be completed and turned in by the deadline of June 11, 2021, 1600 hours PST, in order to qualify. No exceptions. Projects received after the deadline will not be accepted.
7. Note: Winning applicants' multimedia projects may be showcased to BPSA members and external entities.
